

ICEON
ICE CARVING FESTIVAL
WHYTE

Art in Action Program

Information for Teachers and School Registration Form

The Ice on Whyte Festival returns to Old Strathcona January 12 – 22, 2012 and will capture your imagination when art springs to life from frozen water. The festival takes place at a new location, End of Steel Park, 103 Street and Tommy Banks Way in Edmonton. Sculptures in the park include an ice castle, ice slides, ice maze and much more. The YESS Café will be open to students for hot chocolate by donation or for snacks and lunches that they bring along.

The Ice on Whyte Festival is pleased to present the brand new Art in Action Program for school groups. In this program, students can play in the park and watch an ice carving demonstration by one of the festival's very talented artists in residence.

COMPLETE THE FORM AND SUBMIT BY MAIL, EMAIL OR FAX.
